

St. John Paul II Academy is a Catholic independent co-educational 8-12 high school located in South Surrey. With the completion of our permanent campus this year, we are seeking educators for a number of full time and potential part time positions.

Our holistic approach to Catholic education includes vibrant extracurricular programming in the areas of athletics, arts, and campus ministry. Successful candidates will have a passion to contribute to our growing community in the extracurricular life of the school as coaches, staff coordinators and program leaders. These extracurricular areas complement our strong commitment to excellence in academics.

We are currently seeking qualified teachers to become part of our growing community and faculty in the following subject areas:

- Jr. Math & Science
- Jr. Humanities
- Grade 12 Humanities (including Law, AP Psychology, Social Justice, Geography)
- Arts Education (Art, Choral, Drama, Media Arts)
- Applied Skills (Food Studies 8-10, Media Design 10, Entrepreneurialship and Promotions 10, Marketing and Promotion 11)
- Christian Education 10-12
- Language Arts 11 & 12
- Spanish & French (all grades)
- Physical & Health Education

The willingness and ability to teach across subject areas is an asset. Priority conversation will be given to candidates who are practicing Catholics in addition to holding a British Columbia Certificate of Qualification.

As an affiliate school, our compensation package, including salary and benefits, is the same as that of CISVA. Full time teaching positions entail six of the eight assigned teaching blocks. Part time options may be available.

Please contact Mrs. Andrea Prout-Bernett, principal@sjp2academy.com, should you have any questions regarding our school and becoming part of our faculty.

Resumes and cover letters can be sent directly to the above email address. Deadline for submission is Monday, February 10th. Those applicants shortlisted for interviews will be notified by February 12th.
